

College Planning Workshop

For College-bound Students and their Parents

This comprehensive workshop presented by the educational non-profit group American College Planners along with The Amherst Youth Foundation reveals new ways to meet the high cost of college. With increasing college costs and admission competitiveness, preparing for college can be a daunting task.

Learn How To:

- Maximize Aid through Grants and Scholarships
- Understand the current economy's effect on college
- Avoid the 5 biggest mistakes families make
- Understand your Expected Family Contribution; and what it means to you financially
- Spend less for college - keep more for retirement
- Understand Financial Aid Forms
- Present students in the best way- It's crucial
- Manage the critical connections you need to make college a success
- Explore & Choose Careers, Majors, and Colleges
- Know the 10 Steps to ensure college success
- Get student athletes recruited
- Negotiate the complexities facing families
- And much, much more!

Dates & Times:

Amherst Youth Foundation: Independent Health & Family Center

5005 Sheridan Drive
Amherst, NY 14221

- Saturday 4/3/10 10:30AM - 12:30PM

Guest Speaker:

Bruce E. Supernault, CCPS, ChFC

- Certified College Planning Specialist / Chartered Financial Consultant
- Over 25 years of experience

3 Ways to Register:

1. Go to www.americancollegeplanners.org and click on "Free Seminars" link on the left
2. Call (716) 276-1165 and leave a message
3. E-Mail us with your reservation at: workshopny@americancollegeplanners.org

Help Set a Direction for Your Child's Future!